Introit “All My Hope on God Is Founded” Herbert Howells/John Rutter

All my hope on God is founded; Who doth still my trust renew.
And through change and chance doth guide me, Only good and only true.
God unknown, God alone Calls my heart to be God's own.

Human pride and earthly glory, Sword and crown betray our trust;
What with care and toil they build up, Tower and temple fall to dust.
But God's power, Hour by hour, Is my temple and my tower.

God's great goodness aye endureth, Deepest wisdom, passing thought;
Splendour, light, and life attending, Beauty springeth out of naught.
Ever more From God's store Newborn worlds rise and adore.

Daily doth the Almighty Giver Bounteous gifts on us bestow;
God's desire our soul delighteth, Please sure leads us where we go.
Love doth stand At God's hand; Joy doth wait for her command.

Still from all to God eternal Sacrifice of praise be done,
High above all praises praising Christ the One.
Who doth call, doth call;
Ye who follow shall not fall.

*Call to Worship

Psalm 126

Leader: When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion,

All: We were like those who dream.

Leader: Then our mouth was filled with laughter and shouts of joy.

All: We rejoiced: “The Lord has done great things for us.”

Leader: May those who go out weeping, bearing the seed for sowing,

All: Come home with joy, carrying their sheaves.

LET US WORSHIP GOD!

*Prayer of the Day

Prayer of Confession

All: Purifying God, we grow comfortable with the way things are in our lives, in the church, and in the world. We do not always welcome the new life You offer in Christ, for You overturn our notions of power and protocol. Sure of our own righteousness, we are critical of others. Wanting to control our assets, we hoard the gifts You give us. Forgive us, we pray, for seeking our own gain at the expense of others. Help us bend our lives toward Your own life of self-giving and sacrifice. Fill us, our homes and churches, the whole world, with the abundant love of Christ until all are made new. In Christ's name, we pray.

Franz Liszt used this melody for a "Crusaders' March" in an oratorio, but this hymn had nothing to do with the Crusades. No record of the German text exists before the middle of the 17th century or of the Silesian folk melody before the first half of the 19th century.

All: I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. This text seeks to reverse the neglected witness of biblical women by celebrating the woman who washed Jesus' feet (unnamed in Matthew 26:6-13/Mark 14:3-9/Luke 7:36-50; Mary of Bethany in John 12:1-8) and Mary Magdalene (John 20:1-18; Matthew 28:1-10/Mark 16:1-7/Luke 24:10).

Offertory Sentence

Offertory Anthem "O For a Heart to Praise My God"

Robert Edward Smith

O for a heart to praise my God,
A heart from sin set free!
A heart that always feels thy Blood
So freely shed for me!

A heart resigned, submissive, meek,
My great Redeemer's throne,
Where only Christ is heard to speak;
Where Jesus reigns alone.

A humble, lowly, contrite heart,
Believing, true, and clean,
Which neither life nor death can part from Him that dwells within;

A heart in every thought renewed
And full of love divine;
A perfect heart, and pure, and good,
A copy, Lord, of Thine.

This majestic hymn celebrates the paradox that for Christians a means of painful death has been transformed into a symbol of renewed life; a sign of defeat has become an emblem of victory. With the cross traced on our foreheads at baptism we are marked as Christ's own forever.

Church Information and Announcements

We are an open and affirming community of faith in Jesus Christ. At home in an urban neighborhood of many faiths, we acknowledge that we are not alone on the path to understanding God. In worship, study, and fellowship, we celebrate our Presbyterian roots and find joy in our diversity. We strive for the grace to love one another as we seek a deeper understanding of life in the Spirit, working for justice and serving as stewards of God's wondrous creation.

Sixth is a More Light Church: A network of people seeking and affirming the full participation of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer people of faith in the life, ministry and witness of the Presbyterian Church (USA).

Inclusive Language: Words matter. Jesus Christ, the living Word, reached out to all people to bring them into God's fold. The kingdom of God includes all people; therefore our language should reflect the inclusivity and equality among the people of God. To that end, when possible, we seek to eliminate the inherent bias of the English language toward the masculine gender without altering passages that reflect the historical situation of ancient patriarchal culture, out of which the Bible originated.

Masks: EVERYONE, vaccinated or not, is asked to wear a mask while inside the building.

Seating: While distancing is not required, we do encourage people to leave space as attendance allows and to be mindful of people's continued need for distance

Church Nursery: Nursery care for infants and toddlers is available during the worship service. Our childcare staff are required to be vaccinated and masked.

Sunday School and Extended Session: Sunday school is held upstairs at 10 am for children in preschool through high school. Extended Session for children in preschool through third grade is held upstairs during worship following the Time for Children. Take a Stand Against Gun Violence in Harrisburg: The Gun Safety Committee invites all members of the congregation to join CeaseFirePA and their coalition of activists as we take a stand against gun violence at the State Capitol in Harrisburg on Tuesday, April 26th. We will be meeting with lawmakers, rallying on the front steps of the Capitol, and strengthening the gun violence prevention movement. It will be a powerful day of advocacy and action, and we hope that you can join us to help make the moral case for gun violence prevention. Contact Lori Swensson (lori.swensson@gmail.com) for more information and the link to RSVP.

Plastics Recycling: Do you have plastics building up in your home that aren't recyclable? Did you know that Michael's Brothers takes all plastic numbers 1-7 as well as plastic bottle caps? Pam Howe has volunteered to bring a load of plastics from our church on April 24 – Earth Day Sunday! If you would like your plastics to be included, please bring them to church on the 24th or arrange with Pam by email at howepjs@yahoo.com. Please message Pam ahead of time so that she knows how much plastic you have for her.

Plastics will need to be clean and separated as follows: Plastics #1 and #2 need to be separated from each other and everything else. All other plastics, #3 through #7 and bottle caps, can be combined in the same container.

If you would like to volunteer to take a turn driving plastics, contact Nora at crjndj@gmail.com.

Reparations for Bethel AME Church

An Organ Recital with Dr. Douglas-Jayd Burn

Director of Music, Sixth Presbyterian Church

Sunday, April 10 at 2 pm

Sixth Presbyterian Church (1688 Murray Avenue)

This free program features organ compositions by Buxtehude, Mendelssohn, Boëllmann, Pärt, Vierne, Guilmant, Price, and Rutter performed on the Casavant Frères (Opus 3833, 2003).

A freewill offering will be collected to support our neighbor, Bethel AME Church, as they seek restitution for loss of land and wealth when their church property was seized by eminent domain in 1957.

Easter Memorials

We offer two options for honoring our loved ones at Easter:

1. You can buy an Easter lily for $8.00 and have a name placed in the bulletin in honor of or in memory of a loved one. You can then take your lily home after the Easter service.
2. The second option will be to have a loved one's name placed in the bulletin but instead of buying a flower, you can donate $7.00 or more to the Deacons' fund. (We realize that there may be fewer flowers to decorate our sanctuary for Easter, but we feel that some of the money can be used for another cause while still having the opportunity to honor our loved ones.)

Please complete this form and return it to the church office.

Checks should be made payable to "Sixth Presbyterian Church" with "Easter Lily Memorial" or "Deacons' Fund" written in the memo field.
